ARTICULTURE Call for the Arts

Unison Arts Center announces a call for entries for craftspeople and sculptors for its second Annual ARTICULTURE Day, to be held on Saturday, September 25th, at Hurd Farm, in Modena NY. The juried crafts show will exhibit pottery, glass, fiber, basketry, jewelry, etc. Outdoor sculpture will be sited throughout the farm.

Submissions may be made between August 27 and September 3rd. There is a $25 submission fee for sculpture. Jpeg images of the proposed piece(s) should be sent to Submissions@unisonarts.org. The "subject" should be Articulture.

Craftspeople interested in exhibiting at the juried crafts show should request an application by contacting Helene Bigley at Helene@unisonarts.org also between August 27 and September 3rd. The "subject" should be Articulture. Booths are available for at a cost of $25.

ARTICULTURE is an event created to promote Ulster County's three most important industries, the arts, agriculture and tourism. The event is organized by Unison Arts Center, Hurd Family Farm Farm and Liberty View Farm. WKZE-FM Radio will broadcast live from Hurd Farm throughout the day and several thousand people are expected to attend.

ARTICULTURE is made possible in part through Ulster County's Cultural Services & Promotion Fund administered by Dutchess County Arts Council.
